STAMFORD, Conn., Jul 10, 2003 /PRNewswire via COMTEX/ -- Bywater, an international strategic transformation and corporate growth consulting firm, welcomes David A. Browne, Partner, to its team of senior professionals located in the Stamford, Connecticut office.

David Browne was previously a Principal in the Stamford office of Mellon Financial's Organizational Effectiveness Consulting group, a founding member of the Strategic Consulting practice of Accenture, and President of Synthesis Group, both in New York City.

Mr. Browne has over 15 years of experience helping clients achieve breakthrough performance through the execution efforts of their people, across most manufacturing and service industry segments. His approaches uniquely integrate competitive strategy with the latest research on peak human performance to "make change stick."

David speaks at many conferences on the topics of strategy execution, organizational alignment and Helping Large Scale Change 'Stick' at the individual employee level. At the most recent national conference of The Society of Human Resource Management in Orlando, he spoke on Strategic Behavior Change on how to engage employees in the productive learning and behavior change patterns necessary to fully replace obsolete behavior with customer-valued, strategic behavior.

Mr. Browne holds a BS Economics from The Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania and an MBA from Columbia University.
